Dear Rick,

Your show the other night was absolutely wonderful. It really made our corporate Christmas party a hit, everyone really enjoyed your act. We are still laughing about the crazy things you made us do. The lipstick one was a killer, not to mention the chicken dance and all the other things that are too numerous to mention.

We are so glad we picked you to entertain us that special night. Your name will be at the top of our list for recommendations to all our friends and colleagues. Thank you for a wonderful time.

Sincerely,

Barker Implement
